Be it 15 or 25, it still falls within the warranty period

Also, why does the T only have a 15 year warranty while other systems had a 25-year warranty? And is there a 15-year warranty on the ties on Greenbush? What is the warranty for the wooden ones used for replacements?

Joe,

The Globe has you saying there is a 15 year warranty on the concrete ties. I believe Aloisi told me early on there was a 25 year warranty and other people as well. I'm not sure if one of your emails said it or not but I'm checking. But is that accurate, there was only a 15 year warranty even though other systems received a 25 year warranty for the same ties?

Thanks,
